

Karen Brunssen at MUN School of Music

Karen Brunssen, mezzo soprano, Associate Professor, Bienen School of Music, Northwestern University, Co-Chair of Music Performance. Her singing career has spanned over 30 years. Recent engagements included Bach Cantata 94, Thomaskirche, Leipzig, Mahler's 3rd Symphony with Northwestern University, European tour of Verdi's, Requiem, Prokofiev's Alexander Nevsky, and Lee Hoiby's Bon Appetit. In fall, 2013, she was inducted into the distinguished American Academy of Teachers of Singing, and was presented the Weston Noble Award from Luther College.

Monday, January 16, 2017

CHORAL ROOM

10:00 - 10:50am

Undergraduate Choral
Conducting Class

12:00 - 12:50pm

Festival Choir

1:00 - 1:30pm

Chamber Choir

SUNCOR HALL

2:00 - 4:00pm

Voice Masterclass

Tuesday, January 17, 2017

SUNCOR HALL

1:00 - 2:15pm

Opera Workshop

3:00 - 4:00pm

Vocal Pedagogy Lecture

"Karen Brunssen's
Favorite Facts, Concepts, and Techniques for Optimal Singing".

